REVIEW OF ISO 9001 2015 QUALITY MANUAL PHILLIPS PRECISION INC

- This is a "wow" book! For once, as a man, I felt understood. Women will say, "Men! They just don't get it". But, there's a lot about men that women don't get. This book will enlighten all women in a way that men often times find difficult to explain. This book will give women a very good understanding of how men tick and why they act the way they do. Armed with this information and acting upon it, you can be sure to see improvement in your love relationship. But men, you have an equal responsibility! I also recommend the companion book, "For Men Only".

- As as woman, I can tell you that this book is a bunch of garbage. If you want to learn how to subject to your husband, and be an obedient wife, and do everything to please your husband, and spend your whole life adjusting yourself and your needs, and your personality and your heart, and dreams to HIM, then follow Feldhahn's suggestions. On the other hand, please get "The Second Sex" by Simone de Beauvoir, which I haven't read yet, by I know what it's about. Men have "created" an image of women and what women should be like. It's all 'biology' according to Feldhahn. She believes that one way to keep a man happy is to give him lots of sex? She talks nothing about men respecting a woman for her mind, and not just 'sex' and 'appreciation'. If all men are like Feldhahn presents them, then we can conclude that men are idiotic, proud, spoiled, childish, selfish, egoistical, self-centered, animal-like beings and women should walk on egg-shells around them, and treat them like they're the center of the world. If this is true, then I would rather live on island by myself
