REVIEW OF CALENDARIO MANDALAS PARA COLOREAR 2018 CALENDARIOS Y AGENDAS

- I have been waiting for this "The Industry Yellow Pages" release for a couple of months now, this is the best series of directory books that I have bought in many years. ever since the first edition i realized that these books were the future and their structure was ahead of its time . Nothing more to be said about this other than it is the best choice for your office

- Interesting storyline but the contact and conversation between the two brothers was more interesting than the romance. Stephen, Lord Endicott is faced with righting another of his brother's scandals. George Wright (Stephen's half-brother) has ruined an innocent lady, Diana Somerville all on a dare. We find out later the attempted rape is not completed, but I felt that was glossed over. Stephen feels compelled to ask for Diana's hand since George has fled the country. Diana is an interesting character - not really concerned over her lost reputation but living in a fantasy world where she will set out to become a world traveler and adventuress when she reaches her majority. Diana's family and Lord Endicott come up with a scheme to have a sham engagement. It will restore Diana's reputation (how?) and will be over at the end of the season. Of course in true Regency style both fall in love and begin to wish the betrothal is a reality. The problem with the story is that I felt no real affection between Stephen and Diana. Oh some of the correct words are spoken but nothing that made my heart swell. Another problem is that Diana meets George (the bad brother) later and experiences none of the outrage or fear I think a normal woman would feel towards the man who attempted to rape her. Also there is no resolution to the trouble created by Stephen's stepmother and half-brother. Diana never really finds out what Stephen's real feelings about them are. A nice note is that Stephen (though browbeaten to do it) takes Diana on a few adventures, teaching her to drive a rig, talking about taking her on a boat, bringing her to lectures about the Amazon and ascending with her in a hot air balloon. All of these "adventures" lead her to decide risking life and limb was not all that enjoyable after all. An ok read but other "brother stand-in" Regencies (which is a rather common theme) have been handled better.
