REVIEW OF VARIAN MICROECONOMICS MODERN APPROACH TEST BANK

- The text fights off any sensible reader and answers the question, "If kids are afraid of bears, what are bears afraid of?" with a simple example: cloying rhymes. Illustrations are very cute, making me wonder if this was designed as a TV show that didn't quite make it to the tube.

- One of the best sources I have seen for the costuming of the Chinese ruling class. Full color plates show both scrolls and actual garments and accessories. Nice close up photos of hats, boots, armor, mandarin patches and the exquisite white jade belt that was on display at the exhibit. Also includes photos and supporting text for a nice selection of bronzes, porcelains, furniture and textile fragments. The catalog is arranged by "room" which mirrors the way the exhibit was set up. This format is a refreshing change from the standard chronological theme, and triggers my memory on the pieces within their context, and how they were grouped and used together. One of the most important exhibit catalogs to date.
