REVIEW OF MOSAIC 1 LISTENING AND SPEAKING SILVER EDITION

- This is my favorite book by Alice Hoffman. Sure, it's a fairy tale, but the characters are so interesting it makes you wish you really knew people like that. I got this book from the library, read it straight through, and went out and bought a copy for myself. I have no idea what the movie version will be like, but the book is just pure magic, there are no other words to describe it!

- I have a MFA in acting from the University of Central Florida, and I teach acting at Christian Brothers University in Memphis Tennessee. I studied with Larry Silverberg for two summers. He is as remarkable a teacher as he is a writer. Even though one might think it is extremely difficult to explain the Meisner technique in a book, Larry has accomplished that. Like many, I believe you need to study acting in a class to learn the craft, but these series of books are a rare exception. Not only do they teach the technique using a step by step process which allows the actor to really understand what s/he is doing, but they reveal the essence of the Meisner approach which is to specify a role until it has ULTIMATE MEANING for YOU! Also, if you didn't know by now from reading the other reviews, "Meisner gave Larry and Smith & Kraus" written permission to publish these books.
