REVIEW OF HUMAN RIGHTS EXAM QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS PDF DOWNLOAD

- Lyons' insights into the liberal/leftist mindset, from the perspective of the 1930's, is simply astounding as it relates to today's events. Although writing in 1941, he aptly describes the prevalent attitude of the recurrent limousine/latte liberal set as "down with us" and proceeds to demonstrate how their naivete repeatedly led to them being manipulated by totalitarian thugs. The parallels with events in the 1960's and today are incredible. The book is also extremely well-written and balanced. It is thoroughly readable and names the names, exposing the hypocrisy of The Nation, the New Republic and so many others defenders of the indefensible, the men and women who let themselves be used so as to assuage their own guilt for living so absurdly well, as Lyons puts it.

- This book fills in the missing pages of Wall Street's History. It documents how African-Americans overcame racism and other barriers to become successful in the financial securities industry. This should be part of every business school's curriculum.
