But the dark green waters of Tampa Bay refused to hold his monstrous secret, and after only three days, the bodies of his victims surfaced. REVIEW OF DEATH CRUISE ST MARTINS TRUE CRIME LIBRARY

- If you are thinking that this book will be as charming as the movie think again! I read about 70 pages and gave up which I normally do not do. Julie Powell disappoints on every page. She manages to drop the "F Bomb" frequently and get a few digs in on the Republicans both of which did not add to the book. Julie, if you are reading this, you owe me $8.00!
- fun book to read. i imagine that powell writes exactly as she speaks, which i love in a writer. however, i wish she would have kept her constant comments about her political affiliations to a minimum. why did we have to read every other page that she hates republicans.?.?.once was enough...we get it! i was expecting a light read about a woman having fun cooking a legends food and almost quit reading when i had to stomach her constant assault of the grand ol' party. democrat or republican (or as julie powell would say "pure evil"), who wants to read about someone's politics in a supposed book about a cooking journey?
