REVIEW OF HUMAN AND SOCIAL BIOLOGY CSEC PAST PAPERS

- AWESOME, SUSPENSEFUL, EXITING...not enough good adjectives to describe this Bradbury Science Fiction MASTERPIECE OF AMAZINGNESS!!!! I love it and will reread it!
- Okay you guys, I have to admit I actually liked this book. Ehh... and I really don't admire reading that much. I can compare this futuristic story with that of Huxley's Brave New World and Orwell's 1984, both of which I read right before this one. I kind of think that this one was totally more interesting than the other two, no doubt about it. It's primarily about a fireman, Montag, who works for a book-burning fire department. One day the thought of reading those books that he burns crosses his mind. As a result, he steals some and hides them in his home. His wife, Mildred, reports him and all of a sudden he becomes a wanted fugitive. You wanna know how the book ends? I suggest you read it. =P It makes you actually wonder about what the near future will bring us. Kinda spooky, eh? When you're not allowed to voice ur opinions like I'm doing now. Anyways, to make a long story short... just go read it and quit wasting ur time here looking for some good summaries. Ok, not to be rude or anything. =o) L8rz.
