REVIEW OF KEY ANSWERS PROFICIENCY

EXPERT COURSEBOOK

- I read the previous books and they were great!!! But this is a bit farfetched. I don't want to read a soap opera. That's what it's like. Characters argue about nothing, stupid, unimportant things happen. all the characters bicker endlessly with each other. jordan wants to be another tolkien, so hes describing everything describable. it's a very bad book. it's too long. read the previous books. don't bother with this one. his writing isn't good either. there is too many mistakes. sentences are bad. i can't believe people actually like this. don't let your children read it, there's nasty stuff.

- There is something, almost inexplicably horrifying when you open the first page of the book and when you figure out that it was written in 1993. Then you make quick calculation, and then it stuns you. Twelve years. twelve years since book five (!?) and there is not an end anywhere close...Oh well, it seems that my grandchildren will continue to read this saga, and they'll tell me all about it when I am blind and on my death bed....Oh well, better to say something about the book.What can you say? This is the book five and if you're not by now into this series, you should turn around and walk away, but if you, for some reason like it (or you are just masochistic as I am) this is same stuff as any before.It is, though, interesting, how everyone in the book, doesn't have a clue what they're doing, but they still insist on doing it, though still aware that their actions may shake the world in it's roots. Everyone goes around muttering their very own catchphrases that we learn to dislike, instead of maybe just being simpathetic with them in first book.Oh, yeah, short summary would be necessary here, just for you to know what you're missing and what you should expect (but I'm sure you can figure that out by yourself by now). Rand is leading Aiel, whose ways he still don't understand. Mat is trying to run away from them but still cannot. Egwene is doing nothing. Nynaeve and Elayne show remarkable ammount of idiotic behaviour, and that's about it. Oh, yeah, and a big fight in the end, where another Forsaken gets dumped...Just remember boys and girls...twelve years since then, 'till now...
