REVIEW OF MANUAL PARA LA AUTO CONSTRUCCION DE GENERADORES EOLICOS

- Anyone notice that 1984 has already occurred? Not the date, I mean, but big brother did come already. In Maoist China, in the 50s. Although this didn't affect the whole world, if you lived there at the time you would feel the same way as the main characters. Powerful, very moving, amazing book. the movie is a terrible disappointment because it focused on the visual: the nudity and trysts. this has too many metaphors, literally, the movie was overkill.

- George Orwell's 1984 is a crowning achievement of the negative utopia novel, bringing forth oppressment and totalitarianism in a strict society in which all men are slaves to the Party. Orwell's use of symbolism and foreshadowing are fantastic, bringing forth all the elements of lost humanity which he wishes to bring about in the novel. The symbols in 1984 are striking and disturbing, but completely impressive. The entire idea of Newspeak is well used. It is a symbol of the deteriorating of humanity through simplification and the use of force by Big Brother. Also prevalent is the vanishing of people. People vanish not because of a clear violation of laws, but because they are turned in by others for a violation. Often there is no trial and no chance for a people to save themselves from being killed. This shows the complete deterioration of all human freedom as we know it. People are killed for mere suspicion with no definitive proof of wrongdoing, all so that society can go on smoothly. The foreshadowing throughout the novel is also very effective. Orwell uses Winston's dreams to show events that come to pass soon thereafter. His dream in which he hears the voice tell him "We will meet in the place where there is no darkness" ironically foreshadows Winston's being in a prison cell full of light, rather than a triumph over the darkness of the times as Winston first sees it. Also well used is

" $2+2=4$ " foreshadowing his change after the conditioning that "two and two make five." All of this foreshadowing really works to create a sense of destination for Winston. The novel's use of foreshadowing and symbolism coincide to create a sense of terror and impending doom. They work perfectly and the end result is one of the greatest warnings from literature ever.
