REVIEW OF MADER HUMAN BIOLOGY INSTRUCTOR EDITION

- As someone newly interested in rediscovering the meaning behind Christianity, this book had a profound influence on me. Lewis gets to the bottom of things, and tells them for what they are. He does not paint Christianity in an easy light, nor should it be painted in such a way. Instead, he breaks it down using analogies and metaphors that make it easy for the non-Christian to understand, and difficult for the non-Christian to refute. As a Christian, it re-enforced my beliefs and renewed my understanding of what it means to be a Christian and live the Christian way of life as intended.

- Mere Christianity is the best explanation of the main points of Christianity that I have ever read. It cleared up some misconceptions I had about the three person God, becoming one with God, and what being a Christian was all about. I like its straight forward manner and accessible language, just deep enough to get to the meat of the idea, but not over the head of the average reader.
