REVIEW OF ATLS 10TH EDITION

- I generally do not read entire books in one sitting. I could not put this one down. Each chapter left me wanting more. The maturing of Jonus in his understanding of his society is rivetting. I felt his sorrow as his understanding grew that he could not return to the perfect society he once knew. A gem of a book and a strong recommendation.
- I read this book about 3 years ago in one afternoon just because it was on my mom's bookshelf. It was so thought provoking that I still think about it today. It's a very quick way to have a new outlook on society and life. I highly recommend it.
