REVIEW OF ANSWER KEY FOR NHBRC TEST

- Excellent writing. A fast read considering the subject matter. This is a MUST READ for all females over age 16. A MUST READ for everyone. Several practices in this book are already in use in today's society. Another book to add to my tag: "Big Brother" (along with 1984; Brave New World and Fahrenheit 451) .Fear is a tremendous tool that governments and politicians use to take control of the population. It has happened time after time in history and continues today. Why do we, as citizens and global population continue to give up our rights and freedoms for fear mongering? When will we learn? Very disturbing story. So many good quotes in this book. This book will have me thinking about it, for a very long time. We cannot get comfortable with our rights and freedoms.

- The blurb on the back of my copy reads something like, "...Atwood takes today's trends and extends them to their chilling and logical conclusions..." Excuse me, what? This book in no way convinced me that American society would end up in the bizarre '1984'-like ripoff presented here. To even suggest this as the logical future is completely shortsighted and ignores all advances women have made towards equality in the past hundred years or so. The entire book reads as an extremely heavy-handed attack on sexism. It fails to conjure up a realistic society, its characters defy common sense and reason, and it even falls flat in illustrating an interesting love story. The themes presented here have been analyzed a dozen times in far more interesting and coherent books. Skip this one.
