REVIEW OF ESAME DI ISTITUZIONI DI DIRITTO PRIVATO YAHOO ANSWERS

- By: Matt Christopher Have you ever been away from your parents or someone you loved for a long period of time? Well if you have I bet you don't like it. In the book "The Hockey Machine" by Matt Christopher, the protagonist, Steve, plays ice hockey for hockey team called the Bobtails. Steve lives with his parents, or used to anyway. One day after hockey, just as Steve was leaving, he heard a voice say, "Hi Steve, I'm Mark," he announced. Steve did not know who this was. Then Mark added, "Me and my older friend have been watching you play hockey". " Come on he is in the car waiting to meet you." Marks older friend is Kenneth. Kenneth is a coach of a ice-hockey team in Indianapolis. When Steve and Kenneth met they talked, and after that Kenneth asked Steve if he wanted to go and get something to eat for lunch. Steve told him no because he had to get home. Kenneth said that he would take him home right after they ate. Without saying anything Mark pushed Steve in.

Steve got in and Steve, Mark, Kenneth, and the driver all went out to lunch. On the ride back to Steve's house, Steve fell asleep. When Steve awoke he was still in the car. Then he asked in a worried voice, "Where are we going?" Kenneth answered, "To Indianapolis." Steve shrieked, "What, you said that you would take me home right after lunch." Kenneth ruled, "You're going to play on my hockey team, the Chariots. I already asked your parents when you were asleep." Steve said "Prove it." Kenneth pulled out a letter and gave it to Steve. The letter was typed out. Steve thought in his head that anybody could have typed this letter. After Steve was finished reading the letter he finally questioned, "how come I didn't even get a chance to say good-bye to my parents?" No one answered. As soon as they reached the airport they got on to an airplane to fly to Indianapolis. After they got there Steve met the hockey team. They stayed in their own hotel. After Steve met the guys he asked Mark if Mark would talk to Kenneth because Steve was already feeling home sick.

Mark told him "quit thinking about your home. It just makes you more worried." Then he advised "all of the guys and I did." Steve just bowed his head in sadness, and all he could do was think about home! If you've ever felt like Steve has, all you want to do is go home and see your parents. See what happens to Steve if you get the book The Hockey Machine

- I've only read about a quarter of the book and I'm giving up on it. The author didn't do any real research apparently. The NCIS stuff is a joke. An aircraft carrier commander becoming a NCIS commander. Talk about a demotion. And then having civilian defendants represented by military lawyers and going to "military court". I was trying to live with these inaccuracies, but it just kept getting worse. Two of the characters are "professional" agents, but they carry two full sized handguns and use them like a gunfighter in the old west. Come on! Then the author has AK-47 assault rifles firing 5.56 mm cartridges. I gave up. I like my stories to have accurate details. This book does not.
