REVIEW OF ESERCIZI DI ANALISI LOGICA CON SOLUZIONI SCUOLISSIMA COM

- The book is about a girl, Jane Eyre, had a tragic childhood. Her childhood was dull and without anyone loved her, but she still lived bravely and did everything without regard. This was a romance novel which was written by Charlotte Bronte. At the beginning, Jane Eyre's parents were dead. She lived with her aunt. Her aunt hated Jane Eyre very much. She broke her promise to her husband to bring Jane up as her own daughter. However, she was sent to Lowood School, study French, Drawing and Music for 8 years. Luckily, she met a good friend called Helen to share her happiness and sadness in school since both of them were orphan girls. Helen was then died of fever. The experience in school made her more mature, sweet and brave. After that, she found a job in thomfield hall to be a governess of a girl under 14 years old. Then, she fell in love with the girl's father, the master Rochester. Although many twists between them before they had married, they were still ended up happily. The book is a very famous love story. I like this book because of the contradiction between two main characters, Jane and Rochester. It's different from other romance novels. It contains a lot of twists such as they loved each other but they were both afraid to tell their feelings to each other. It's because Rochester had a secret and Jane also had some misunderstanding to Rochester. Therefore, many love barriers between them. Besides, after Jane left Rochester. Jane still had many testes of true love. I dislike it only because the book contained many descriptions on background scene such as the background environment when Rochester requested Jane to be his wife. The background environment was a lightening shocking a big tree. I highly recommend this book to the readers above 12 years old. It is because some young readers may not interest in this romance novel. Although the book contains 207 pages, I am pleased to read every page seriously. It is a wonderful story. I highly recommend it to you!!!

- It was okay but a little dry reading. But the price you had was excellent. Going to college after all of these years I have to watch my pennies.
