REVIEW OF CURSIVE HANDWRITING WORKBOOK FOR KIDS JOKES AND RIDDLES

- Another classic work from the authors who brought you the now world famous masterpiece "Self-initiation into the Golden Dawn Tradition" and "Secrets of a Golden Dawn Temple", - the most famous students and living successors to the late, great Israel Regardie (editor of the famous "The Complete Golden Dawn System of Magic" and author of the now classic "The Middle Pillar" and "The Tree of Life"). The Ciceros are also the creators of what is arguably the only true-to-the-tradition Golden Dawn Tarot deck ("The Golden Dawn Magical Tarot"). Once again, the Ciceros come up trumps with this new masterpiece, a work which contains everything you would possibly wish to know about the Golden Dawn: its history, its Rituals, the purpose of Initiation, the dangers of ego on the Path, the much misunderstood question of lineage, are all covered extensively in its 360 pages of untimely, hermetic wisdom. It is a scholarly exposition of a living tradition, written by High Adepts and Chiefs of an existing legitimate and prestigious Golden Dawn Order.... Personally, as a long-time student of the Golden Dawn Tradition, I could not recommend this book high enough.

- Being an amateur historian, a resident of New Orleans for 15 years now, and interested in the City's roots, I found this book to be probably the best on the subject I've read thus far. First of all, the book delivers exactly what it claims to on the cover. I've read skimpier and more salacious books on Storyville, none of the caliber and detail that this book offers. I've made several tours to the site of Storyville and have found the directions in the book to be valuable and intensified my tour experience. The excellent photographs were most helpful.
