REVIEW OF MYMATHLAB WEEK 3 HOMEWORK ANSWERS

- I've been reading it slowly, I'm now in chapter 10. I'm enjoying the tone of the accounts, the stories are described really well, I can imagine them very vividly. The language is different but very understandable and frankly surprised to me that I'm enjoying it. As a person with a deep and sincere love for Christ, it's really humbling to read Hudson's determination to go after the people in China to proclaim the gospel and to wipe away the "ignorance way of life". It's something that in my life I have not come across to see in anyone so it's really special and even more so because of the steep price pioneers like Hudson had to pay. I'm reading this with a interest that someday it could be me.

- I happened upon this book on a public library shelf while I was looking for Bel Kaufman's "Up the Down Staircase" (which I have read several times). I found "Housewife" entertaining and very well written, and I enjoyed the 1960s references.
