REVIEW OF THE SUBTLE ART OF NOT GIVING A FUCK MARK MANSON

- This book is many times more shallow than I would have expected from such a praised writer. For all the magazines (Teen, Y.M etc...) I expected to read a story with some depth. Not one with simple, personalitiless characters that easily fall into cliches. But this is not the only problem the entire concept is done in an amaturish manner. It's obvious within minutes of starting the story it was written by someone without any real-world-experience. The only thing that this book accomplished was to prove that Hype can't make a story.

- This book provides you with systems and checklists to set up your new classroom. It also provides you with potential solutions to challenges that will inevitably arise as a novice teacher. I highly recommend this text. It is a very quick read.
