REVIEW OF OSHO ZEN TAROT CARDS

- Should be read in conjunction with one or more of Ngugi's critical/theoretical texts or essays. Not as rich, in some ways, as River Between, but a very compelling journey into the problems of resistance at the dawn of a comprador age.

- I'm an (unemployed) agronomist, here in Brazil. I read this book, translated to the portuguese, here in Brazil, last year. This book debunks many frauds from racists/eugenis/neo-malthusianists/ecologists/environmentalists. Environmentalism is a religion such as islamism or marxism. Like eugenics or marxism, ecologism is a godless religion. As I ever told, if eugenics was racism dressed as a science then, environmentalism is simple eugenics dressed in green. What is a true eugenism? What is a true environmentalism? Every environmetalist can produce his own ecology, at his image and similarity. If this book has many qualities, it also has some problems: 1-It doesn't tell you that environmentalism is, a religion such as marxism or islamism. As a religion, ecology claims a faith, a doomed world, menace, frauds, we an the others, etc. Eugenics, neo-malthusianism, ecology are all religions, not sciences. 2-This book claims that shale oil is the big answer, to the oil's big prices. In fact, shale oil is a bad source of energy. In fact, we use more energy extracting shale oil, from the rock, then the energy contained in shale oil itself.
