REVIEW OF SCHOOL LEVEL SPELL BEE PAPERS

- The Hobbit, written by J.R.R. Tolkien, is a fantasy novel at its very best. This story introduces many extraordinary characters such as Bilbo Baggins, Gandalf, Thorin Oakenshield, and Gollum; who continue to live in the imaginary world of the trilogy, The Lord of the Rings, a sequel to The Hobbit. The story emerges in the quiet, peaceful town of Bag End, where the unadventurous Bilbo Baggins lived. He had much enjoyed his comfortable lifestyle until the arrival of the dwarves followed by Gandalf, who persuaded him to embark on a great quest to acquire the treasure guarded by the dragon Smaug. Along the journey to the dragon, the travelers encountered many dilemmas including mountain trolls, the disturbances in the Misty Mountains (the leaving behind of Bilbo and the conflict with Gollum), evil wolves (Wargs), and spiders. The climax of the story occurs after all of this believe it or not. They finally arrive at Lonely Mountain and defeat Smaug. However, the adventure does not end here, the tired travelers still have to overcome one last obstacle. They must defend this newly acquired treasure from the viscous goblins and wargs to determine who got the treasure. The Hobbit is one of the most interesting and entertaining novels that I have ever taken the time to read. The author, J.R.R. Tolkien, is able to completely entrance the reader with his very descriptive details. Along with this, the plot of the story is incredible, making it seemingly impossible to put this novel down. If you are looking for a book that takes you on a quest through a new world and grabs your attention from the get go, then I highly suggest that you read The Hobbit.

- this book is a must read for everyone 6 to 106, a true delight. i've read it over and over and always find something new and wonderful.
