REVIEW OF HYUNDAI ATOS PRIME MAINTENANCE MANUAL

- A Crown of Swords was as skillfully written as the rest of the Wheel of Time series, which is to say the best, bar none, since Tolkien's Lord of the Rings trilogy; however, the book was not only way too short, but answered too few questions. I also found the end of the book rather anti-climactic... I expected a more thrilling battle at the end. For all of its shortcomings, however, it still was head and shoulders over any fantasy novel I have read since the last WoT book. Until next time...

- This book moved the story along, and had more action involved. Plus, Matt was heavily featured and is my favorite chapter.
