REVIEW OF BRING ON THE EMPTY HORSES DAVID NIVEN

- Clever quirky main character Taylor who had been showed a baby girl in her car and was an instant mom... Very interesting story line but somewhat from a hill billy times. Could not really pinpoint the year that it was written about, yet was still interesting read.

- This is a story of Taylor Greer. Taylor is from a small Kentucky town and is lucky enough to stay in school, get an education, get a job, save some money, leave town and head west. After inheriting a little girl named "Turtle" she settles down in Tuscon, Arizona where she gets a job and makes some interesting friends. There was something missing from this book. I am struggling with exactly what. I thought some of the characters, like Lou Ann and Taylor, were developed well enough. Some characters could have been developed more. I thought the story dragged in some parts. I felt like I was missing some key points that should have been mentioned in the book but weren't. Although there was some good humor and some interesting parts that kept my attention, I can't say this book left an impression.
