REVIEW OF BRAVE NEW WORLD ANSWERS STUDY GUIDE

- While re-reading this book after I finishd the series I realized something, every single character, from Anita and Jean-Claude, down to Irving step completely out of character. While this book is by far, probably the most humorous book in the series, its characters are sorely lacking. It's a must read, simply for its hilarity, and for the rest of the series to make sense, to get through the book, you mustn't take the characters too seriously.

- Perils of Female SOE Agents"Death Be Not Proud" by Elizabeth Nicholas is a painful account of the fate of seven Special Operations Executive (SOE) female agents purportedly executed after being compromised by a penetration of the SOE's F-Section (French) Prosper network. The is a very interesting look into special warfare and one of the first books on women operating in the SOE in WWII.
