REVIEW OF OXFORD SOLUTIONS INTERMEDIATE TEACHERS 2ND EDITION

- A great novel, but such a shame that the Kindle version is full of typos and mistakes, to pay any money for a novel that hasn't been proofed is very poor.
- I had to give it two stars because the years of waiting and hype gave me much more entertainment than the book did. I have yet to read a more dissapointing book. After years of waiting... years of Jean explaing she's taking her time to get it right... and this is the result? You meet Jondalar's people, one by one, and hear again and again (and again) the "formal introductions", the explanation of wolf, the horses and spear throwers. Most of the "new" dialogue makes me think it's set in the 1980's. One can overlook the grammatical errors (there are numerous), but they should be an embarrassment to everyone that OK'd the book. I hate to say it, but this is not a good novel. I found myself skipping whole pages just so I could read something that interested me. You can throw out half of this book, and still get bored.I just cannot believe anyone actually read this and said, "Jean, this is a wonderful book."WAIT FOR IT IN PAPER BACK... I wish I had.
