REVIEW OF DESCARGAR INTO THE BADLANDS TEMPORADA 2 SUBTITULADO

- In my opinion, Jane Eyre is the best novel ever written. I read it every year or so, because I learn something new every time. It is poignant and unforgettable. It is one of the few novels wherein the author speaks to the reader as if he or she is a dear friend and this is a story she simply must tell. I love it. It is bittersweet, mysterious, and a little supernatural. I wish it had been required reading in high school.... thankfully, I picked it up and read it on my own. Highly recommend it.

- one of my favorite books from the long list of the ol' required high school reading. I fell in love with Jane immediately, though it took a while for me to appreciate the novel on a whole. I came back to the novel again in more recent years, and I have enjoyed it more and more with each read. Having heard it as a book on tape while on bedrest brought the story to life even more and made the mysterious Bertha and the dark and moody Mr. Rochester that much more intense. This is so much more than a romantic tale between an unfortunate governess and her brooding employer; it is truly the story of a young woman coming into her own.
