REVIEW OF DIALOG DRAMA SAHABAT JADI CINTA

- This book was worth the wait. I don't want to put a spoiler, but it really comes full circle with the other books. Jean manages to incorporate so many real-life experiences of our time into their time. The only down-side is that it leaves me wanting MORE and I hope she will provide just one more book. She travelled to France and did a lot of research for this one.
- This book was such a let down, I almost want my money back. I had been griping for years about the Earth's Children series and where in the world was that new book. I was so excited to finally to see the book alive and in print that I bought the first copy that I saw and settled myself in for an absorbing session. Imagine my surprise when I encountered all the other books mashed together in 750 pages of dry, tasteless reading. The repetition of the background of Ayla and Jondolar was really..... bad. I am trying to not sound harsh but I would only recommend this book if you go buy it used in paperback. We will see if the 6th book can recoup my faith in this series.
