REVIEW OF CHAPTER 3 POSITIVE PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTS AND MEASURES 59

- The author kept me interested in the story line. I felt like I could relate to the characters very well.
- This book is a fantastic look at Romans 5-8, focusing on Christian life issues such as understanding the difference between law and grace, the dangers of legalism, formality and license in the believer's walk, and what it means and looks like to walk in the Spirit. Another great read from a great author. I especially like the author's understanding and presentation of the importance of knowing our identity in Christ and how it relates to everything in our walks with Him.
