REVIEW OF ORANG DI PERSIMPANGAN KIRI JALAN KISAH PEMBERONTAKAN MADIUN SEPTEMBER 1948 SOE HOK GIE

- I was 16 when I came across this book. The title and Cover was the first thing that caught my eye. I have read this book many times and it is absolutely without a doubt amazing. I loved every single page of it. It is one of my all time favorite books and I have never found anything that I have liked as much. I have read alot of reviews on this book that were negative, and can not understand why readers bash it. After reading this wonderful book, I am left with two new bestfriends, that left the book and are with me. There are not enough words to describe how great this book is. I hope more people decided to read it and pass it along to someone else, who has enjoyed it as much as I have.

- After more than three decades in fundraising, I have not come across a book like this that sums up the best thoughts about "the raising of money" in such a concise and powerful way. Whenever someone asks me what they can read to learn about fundraising, I recommend this book. And in this day of so many organizations seeking simply to preserve themselves regardless of the effectiveness of their programs, Jim Lord's words continue to resonate for me: "Organizations don't have needs...people do." Quite simply the best single book about fundraising I've come across.
