REVIEW OF CALCULUS EARLY TRANSCENDENT ALS 8TH EDITION PINTEREST

- This is a CDROM edition, in my opinion the best method to pack indexes and directories. Smart move by the publisher, Platinum Millennium made a smart choice by putting its very successful yellow pages series on a compact disk, it's the best choice and now searching is made a million times easier. I recommend this to all

- Continuing the "Fables" saga, this book brings together two story arcs (one involving a "Mundy" reporter who thinks he's uncovered the Fables' real nature, the other throwing Snow White and Bigby Wolf together) with some shorter, one-issue stories. One is about Jack, the trickster, who gets in over his head during the Civil War after fighting for the Confederacy, and the other introduces us to "Smalltown," the community of Lilliputian exiles. The stories are, as always, good, but be warned:

these comics may be about fairy-tale people, but this is not meant for children---there are scenes involving nudity and other "adult" subjects. That said, it's quite good and well worth the money.
