REVIEW OF BIG BOOK OF NEAR DEATH EXPERIENCES THE ULTIMATE TO WHAT HAPPENS WHEN WE DIE

- The Book The Witch of Blackbird Pond written by Elizabeth Speare is a wonderful novel. It teaches kids about the lifestyle of the colonisaal people and how one girl survives a major change of lifestyles, from the higher class life to a lower class. Also, I think the book reflects love, friendship, and courage. The book is about a young girl from Barbadoes, Kit, who moves in with her Aunt Rachel and Uncle Mathew in Conneticut. She has to adjust to changes and the lifestyle they live in Conneticut such as working around the house instead of servants doing all the work. Kit meets an old women named Hannah. Her and Hannah grow a strong realationship together, but one thing could break them apart. The town that the two ladies were living in thought Hannah was a witch! Kit was accused also of being a witch because she hung out with Hannah. Kit was sent to trial for this so called "crime" . She was locked up and only hoping that someone would come and save her. Maybe William would come and save her, Maybe Prudence,the girl she had helped to learn how to read and how to write, or nat, maybe even Aunt Rachel. Read the novel to find out what happens. I think this book reflects friendship because Hannah was a great friend to Kit. She was always there when Kit needed comforting of just when she needed to talk. It also reflects friendship when Kit and Prudence became good friends. Kit helped Prudence to learn how to read and how to write. They too where there for eachother when they needed a shoulder to cry on. This book also reflects courage. Kit had to stand up for herself in many places. For example, Kit had to stand up for herself at the witch trials. She had to convince them that she really wasn't a witch. SH ehad to be couragous also when she went to her Aunt Rachels and her Uncle Mathew's house. She had to expect that they would let her in and she couldn't back out after she had gotten on the boat. I really enjoyed this book and I hope that others who read The Witch of Blackbird Pond will enjoy this book as much as I did. I t was a well written chapter book. I had a hard time putting the book down.

- The Four Agreements Companion Book is essential, as was advised. I am finding that this is absolutely true.Whatboth books promis is astonishing. I am excited anticipating mastering "the dream of my Life".
