REVIEW OF SECRETS OF THE VIET CONG BY JAMES W MCCOY

- This book can be a labor, sometimes repetitive, but by the end you have been washed with the unique life of an unapologetic man. To read a book that was written over such a large spread of time is an experience that is both rare and cathartic. If non-rhyming free verse poetry doesn't bother you then I recommend reading this book.

- really, really, REALLY hate the difficult to read font that was used. Also looks like it was photocopied not printed and it a large bulky book to read.
