REVIEW OF EXAMPLE OF A JOURNAL RESPONSE

- I bought this book several years ago, when I first started quilting. I made 5 quilts (for gifts) at one time with this pattern. I am a visual learner so the illustrations and easy to follow directions were perfect for me. I especially appreciated the easy to follow instructions on cutting out, laying out and piecing the strips. They all came out beautifully. One tip; I do not have a quilting sewing machine and had trouble finishing the denim quilts by machine. So I tied these off. I prefer Eleanor Burns' books over others because of their simplicity.

- I personally love this novel. I'm a young adult and almost same age as Milan, can't say I relate to her but it's fun read. I feel in love with the characters, I wish I would find my Matthew! I finish reading this book last night I woke up today thinking about it and going back to my favorite pages. I can't seem to get this book off my mind. Great, fun book for young adults who rather read a book than magazines.
