REVIEW OF KARL TAYLOR PHOTOGRAPHY HOME

- This book starts strong; with quirky, believable characters and a poignant setting that was obviously a well-loved memory of the author's childhood. I frequently laughed out loud at some antic of Maggie's or a description of her woodenheaded, morally upright Aunt Glegg. Once the characters grew up, however, it degenerated into a tragic romance with Maggie as `Mary Sue', and the ending! - don't get me started.
- I like to read books that I can actually understand. I can not understand the language in this book..I guess I'm just calling myself ignorant, but thats the truth. I loved the PBS movie, its a great story but the book just isn't for me.
