REVIEW OF CROWDFUNDING THE NEXT BIG THING

• Okay, in my opinion this book is a phenomenal addition to the series, and yes it is long (both the book and the series) and yes there are lots of characters and yes the plot is complex and yes you do need to remember stuff and expend a few brain cells and ya Jordan is descriptive, but hey to me that sounds like a pretty meaty, juicy read. The climax is an unbelievable rush and I had withdrawals waiting for The Crown of Swords to come out. My advice (to those who haven't read the series)- Take a look at the cover of LoC, read the title, think about it a little bit, get a burger, and then start reading The Eye of the World so you can eventually read this great book (and series).

• I have truly enjoyed the Wheel of Time series thus far. I have only read through this book. The series started a little slow but quickly gained momentum and kept it, until this book. The story is wonderful and I'm still excited about reading the rest of ther series, but Jordan really stretches the plot thin to get a fat book here. The last 100 to 150 pages cover much more story and moves much faster than the rest of the book. Had Jordan used this pacing, he could have told the same story in 400 pages instead of 700.
