REVIEW OF FIRST EASTER RABBIT

- In older editions of this book, there's a fascinating preface by Lewis in which he talks about, among other things, his view of the nature of demons and angels and how they have been mis-portrayed in popular art and literature. That preface is not included in this edition.
- This book makes an active Christian realize all the things that he is doing wrong, or forgetting, or letting go unnoticed. It makes one realize that an active spiritual battle is happening for your soul every second, and makes one realize how to pick a side in that battle. Insightful. Frightening. Makes you see what's really going on.
