REVIEW OF LIFE SCIENCE PAPER 1 GRADE 12 NOVEMBER 2011 MEMO

- What a fun book! This was my first experience with a Jennifer Crusie novel, and I just wish I had discovered her sooner. She is a recommended author from some friends who have never steered me wrong before. I was rooting for Min and Cal right from the start and found myself smiling every time they even spoke to each other. I loved Cal's descriptions of Min's body and how sexy he thought she was. It was very refreshing to read about a hot, sexy, romantic man who was that attracted to a woman who was not a super model. I'm sure those men do exist...somewhere! I also loved the supporting characters. There was not one that was not appealing in some way, even the parents, Cynthia, and David. Tony took a while to grow on me, but in the end, he emerged quite the hero himself. My only complaint is that Min, who is described as fat, is probably about a size 10. Since she was able to very uncomfortably squeeze in to a size 8, she can't be more than a 10, and a size 10 is not fat! No, she's not a stick figure but fat is stretching it quite a bit. Other than that one small flaw, there was nothing wrong with this book. I finished it in one day and will love it just as much when I'm ready to read it again!

- Calvin Morrisey cannot say no to a bet, not to save his life. This man will bet on everything, but truly, it's part of his charm. Minerva Dobbs calculates the odds, lives within nice parameters until she meets the Heartbreak King, then she's all-in. The story opens with a break-up scene. Min won't sleep with David, so he's cutting the relationship short and only a few short weeks before she needed a date for her sister's wedding. That's when she sees him, Cal Morrisey. A man with the reputation of a love-`em-and-leave-`em sort. After a lengthy discussion with her friends, Min approaches Cal only to mistakenly overhear a bet between David and Cal. Frustrated and hurt, Min sees a way to pay them all back. Calculating the odds of success she works the bet in her favor. She thinks. This hysterical romp will grab your attention. It's a one-sitting read. Be careful where you read it, because there are many places you will actually laugh out loud at the antics of Cal, Min, and their friends. In this one novel, you get Elvis preoccupation (both of them), one-eyed felines, shoe-fetishes, 101 things you never knew to do with Krispy Kremes and much much more. This is a must have for anyone interested in romantic comedy. Yet again, Jenny Crusie steals our hearts with truly magnificent characters, who make us yearn for, laugh for, and hurt for them. This is a Five Angel Recommended Read if I ever saw one.
