REVIEW OF MEDICAL SURGICAL NURSING 9TH EDITION LEWIS TEST BANK

- This had to be one of Stepehn Kings slowest, most boring, most complicated books and was by far the most torturous to read. The first part of the book intruduces 4 friends who were in HS together. It introduces them each seperately in their current lives showing how different they all are from each other and also intruducing the powers that one of them may or may not have. This section was definately slow going. The second section follows them on a hunting trip where Jones nearly shoots a mean because he thought he was a deer. He takes the man back to their cabin and helps him get better as he is disoriented, sick and missing several teeth. The other 3 are off in the woods and run into a woman who has the same condition as the man and who was part of his hunting parts. She later explains and is afraid of mysterious lights in the sky which is later shown to be an alien spacecraft. During this section we are introduced to a mentally challenged individual was was saved by the 4 when they were kids, and it is also hinted that he has psychic powers as well. Finally, both of the travellers give "birth" (i'm not even going to touch that one, read the book if you are curious) two a worm like alien creature that starts running arround killing and attacking people. Jones fights one of the worms and winds up becoming infected by the spores it releases, now making him able to communicate with them telepathically. The next section follows a military commander sent to quarentine the area, and to kill off all of the aliens who it has been revealed have been attacking and attempting to dominate earth since the 1940s. On the way back they find Jones and bring him to the quarentine area where the book turns into a boring muddy convoluted string of who is saying what telepathically to who. The rest of the book details manipulation by the aliens of several of the main characters as well as the human fighting back. This book was terrible was boring as hell and went absolutly nowhere fast. The end is typical alien movie ending, which can be spotted from a mile away. If you want to read this book read the wikipedia synopsis, that should be enough to get you through it, as the dragging slowness of this book is a nightmare itself to read. My opinion is eather to skip this one, or to rent it from the Library.

- Joseph Mitchell is perhaps the best argument for never bothering to write again. He has said it. Why bother? This book is a collection of four books, including the classic Joe Gould's Secret (the last piece he ever wrote). He shows us what writing is meant to be: lyrical, poetic, filled with detail and observation, full of life about life full of meaning. The Rivermen, which details the life and times of Edgewater, New Jersey, is my favorite piece. It dodges and meanders, building a backdrop and developing some characters, and then WHAM, the meaning of life. I remember my wife asking me what the piece had been about, and I think my only clear response was: everything. He has style, and he also has meaning. His prose drives the reader toward his final sentence, and like Joyce he manages to leave the reader awed at his conclusions. And wiser. Of course, the most astonishing aspect of all is that it was all true. I suppose that shows how much meaning we miss in the living of life.
