REVIEW OF MY LEFT FOOT CHRISTY BROWN

- I recommend this book as kindling for a fire. It is the worst book that could have possibly been written. If you want to read this, jump off the nearest bridge or very tall building (without a parachute). That's probably the most similar experience to reading this book. Thank you, and have a good day.
- The book is a fabulous adventure on the pre-hippy, vagabond Buddha trail. However, it is one man's literary achievement. The author died from drinking too much booze for too long. So it's best to treat the book as a wonderful read, and not a guide on how to live.
