REVIEW OF MERCURY OUTBOARD MANUAL BY SERIAL NUMBER

- I have read this book seven times and always find something new that I missed the times before. He attacks every aspect of the human character; even himself. He leaves no stone (person) unturned. His development of character is still amazing and unmatched by anyone. It is easy to see that he patterns his characters after people he knew. The comic episodes juxtaposed with the sad lives of people in lives going nowhere is one of the greatest works of art since "The Grapes of Wrath." This book is what America is really like.
- The book was in great shape considering it was used. The selling also got it here beyond fast. Thanks it should work out for college just fine. :)
