REVIEW OF IC ENGINE BOOK

- Summer of My German Soldier is one of the greatest novels of our time, in my opinion... It is the tale of a young girl, Patty, during the midst of WWII, and all she has to deal with, like abusive parents and life without one ounce of love-- But then she meets Anton, a German soldier in a prisoner camp, who seems to hold everything she was missing in her life... One thing to add here: Patty was Jewish. Summer of My German Soldier is an exceptional book to read; you will come out of it feeling good about your life, the pain of Patty's life, and extreme anxious-ness to get the sequel book, Morning is a Long Time Coming. Get this wonderful novel, because I know you will enjoy it! :)

- I had no idea we had this book, I found it in my basement :)Tomas is usually watched by his sister after school until his mother gets home, but one day his mother is late and late, so his sister leaves him alone so she can get to her job. He's a big boy, right?This book realistically covers the normal feelings of being scared on your first time alone in the house, and also Tomas' pride in his resourcefulness in having an impromptu party for his teacher when she shows up at his door (to invite his mother to a school meeting, apparently).A previous reviewer said the characters are African-American. This is possible, however, with the names Tomas and Ana I suspect they may be Hispanic instead. No matter, it's not a crucial plot point.
