REVIEW OF THE PURE AND THE IMPURE

- A wonderful book with unexpected surprises and twists. I really enjoyed reading it. Romance, suspense, action, it's like a movie script. Nevertheless, I'm afraid that, transforming this book into a movie, may take away a lot of the suggested unawareness of the protagonists. I wish the directors and actors good luck. Br a lg!GRTZ

- If you are getting a dachshund or thinking about getting a dachshund.....this is a must have! As the author admits this is not an all inclusive how to train your dog book. But, it does touch on training and specific to dachshunds. They can be a quirky breed (of course that only makes that more lovable!). Those quirks are covered well in this book. Potty issues are always something to contend with when you own a dachshund, but the book touches on how to deal with that. Other training books are generic and not specific. The care for a dachshund is a little different due to their structure.....this is also covered in the book. Other than all that.....the pictures are just gorgeous!!!!!! You can't turn a page without each dachshund touching your heart. This also would make a wonderful present for any dachshund lover. The book is informative and entertaining!
