REVIEW OF TIA PORTAL SERVICE 1 SIEMENS

- You know, I've never read the book, but I looked up the word in the dictionary... The word Crucible has nothing do to with witch trials! It's so irrealant, it means an ordeal. Now come on, the witch trials have nothing to do with ordering chicken! Besides, pork meat is better for the dogs, and birds like the smell of bacon.
- This is my favorite of the Prydain Chronicles. I'm afraid I can't remember whether this was true when I first heard the story at about age 5, but the theme of self-discovery is still relevant to me today. I have, at times, been as proud and as stubborn as Taran. Like him, I have gained skill in many areas that have still failed to satisfy me. And like him, I have desperately yearned for things beyond my reach. Who says this is just a children's book?
