REVIEW OF CONNECT THE DOTS RASHMI BANSAL

- This book is for those sappy at heart. Those who enjoy love in its my simplistic form. A very easy read; or maybe it was just the fact that I couldn't put the book down. I would never have read James Patterson if it was not for Suzanne Diary; and this the second book I have read by him- could possible leave a spot on my soul forever. If your looking for mystery, murder and intrege, your reading the wrong book. If you are looking for "my life isn't all that bad" and something to make you live life a little more "from sunset until you can't keep your eyes open." this book is for you!!

- This was a wonderful book ,it showed a perspective of love from a young love to an aged love . It gave me a warm and fuzzy feeling inside ... like I was there with them , talking to Sam and reading the letters and trying to figure out who Doc was , learning a whole nother life that I never knew my grandmother lead. I don't want to give out to many details cause it is a must read .
