This book examines public administration in South Asia in the context of rapid changes and modernization of administrative traditions, thoughts, and practices. The existing literature has, however, not given adequate attention to these developments, at least in a single volume. The book describes both the shared administrative traditions of Bhutan, Bangladesh, China, India, the Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka, and how far they have adapted their administrative systems to respond to contemporary administrative and governance challenges. REVIEW OF ANALYTICAL ABILITY TEST PAPERS

- i got this book for free and i only read the first couple of pages and i was immediately uninterested in it.. so much that i fell asleep during class when i was reading it
- I was just looking for a free classic to read for fun this summer; this book far exceeded my expectations. While others are reading 50 Shades of Grey, this strangely twisted love story is far more agreeable with my taste. It honestly touched me, and I will continue to reread it for years to come.
