REVIEW OF HARLEY SPORTSTER REPAIR MANUAL DOWNLOAD

- As a fairly new kindle owner and a lover of crime/mysteries, I was excited to discover this free kindle version download. I had never heard of the author, don't much care for Asian settings, am not into the supernatural so I didn't expect much - but hey - it was free. So I was very surprised to be drawn right into the story, found I liked the style of writing because it was so different from what I usually read, and learned alot about a subject (Thailand) that had previously held no interest for me. I agree with the other posters that this is not for the feint of heart - it's about the seamy side of life. If you can watch CSI or have read some of Patricia Cornwell's novels this one is certainly no worse. I only wish I had a Thai/English dictionary while I was reading it because there were many words I wanted to look up. Some I never got the drift of the meaning, never mind knowing how to pronounce them. Here's one you'll need to know: Farang (in Thai: ฟาร์ง), sometimes pronounced falang, is the generic Thai word for a foreigner of European ancestry. Based on this book, I'd even pay for another Vincent Calvino novel or anything by Christopher G. Moore.

- I read a article about Spycams in MLK Jr holiday. The neighborhood watch was using cameras to protect the neighbors somewhere in CA. Somewhere in the article says " tracing George Orwell's 1984, 'BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING YOU'. " or something like that. Wow. I just can't believe a 1949 novel turns real in 1999, that's 50 years! If you don't know what I'm talking about.... that's because I'm just too excited. What if a jail turns to a Room 101?
