REVIEW OF ENGLISH IN COMMON 4 WORKBOOK ANSWERS

- I was able to get through this book okay, but found it a little boring. It jumped around a lot. Taylor Greer is an eighteen year old girl striving for independence in her life. She also wants to cut the strings with her boyfriend to avoid pregnancy. In her travels from her hometown of Kentucky, she meets the human condition head-on when a baby is placed in her car. The mother takes off and leaves. So Taylor has no choice but to love it and calls her Turtle for the way she grabs onto things. As the book continues, other strange characters enter the scene, and the story line skips around quite a bit. This is what I didn't like about the story as a whole; otherwise it would have been good.

- With the diversity of the characters and a story that touches the soul, this book was an amazing read. Each character can be identified with and each relationship that the book describes is easily understood. This book is neither too short nor too long. My first Kingsolver book, but, guaranteed, not my last.
