REVIEW OF MODERN AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY 7TH EDITION ANSWER KEY

- Blood is a book that seems to have too many interesting ideas. Sadly it never focuses on any one of them long enough to become interesting. Too many elements seem to have been tossed in without having any impact on the story, stretching suspension of disbelief beyond all bounds. The attempt at "non-linearity" simply creates a jumble that, while ultimately having a certain underlying logic, is not a very entertaining or engrossing read.

- After reading Whips & Whispers by Pita (a truly fantastic book that I strongly recommend to anyone interested in BDSM romance/erotica), I was extremely anxious to read more by her. To my shock, as wonderful as Whips & Whispers was, this book was absolutely awful. The stories are extremely short and barely erotic. On average, they contain about 90% set up (bland discussion of the characters, scene, etc) and 10% "action" - sexual or otherwise. The interactions between the characters are minimal and superficial, left almost entirely to the reader's imagination. When a story begins to show promise, it ends - leaving the reader to tell any actual story (a task typically assumed by the author).After reading Whips & Whispers, I am beyond shocked by how disappointing this book is. I also purchased Angela's Wolves, figuring that I could take a chance for $0.99. Sadly, Angela's Wolves shared the same flaws as this book: all set up and detail, minimal story that ends after the very first page that finally shows promise. Literally, my responses to the final pages (in Angela's Wolves; the final paragraphs of each story in this book) were "okay, this is finally going somewhere good, I will continue reading after all," and then, less than one minute later, "or it's just stopping, before actually telling a story." Again, beyond disappointing.I strongly advise that you do NOT buy this book. Based on Angela's Wolves, I strongly recommend that you not buy ANY of Pita's cheap books ($3 or less). I suggest you proceed with caution before buying anything from Pita, with the exception of Whips & Whispers, which I recommend as one of the better books in this genre.
