REVIEW OF HYDROLOGY AND WATER RESOURCES ENGINEERING SK GARG

- The book was short on action and long on complaining about their treatment by the Army. I highly respect the men and women serving in the military, but if they wish to write a book about their experience, they should not overkill their complaining and stick to discussing what they indicated the book would be about.

- Tim Pigott-Smith performed a brilliant narration of the abridged audiobook version of Heretic by Bernard Cornwell. I don't usually enjoy audiobook abridgements of favorite books, because so much action is lost. Pigott-Smith, however, managed to portray all of the characters in this audiobook in many distinct accents, whether giving voices to men or women, or to French, Italian or English characters who were holy, fanatical, brave, cowardly, or evil. True, sieges which took days in the book seemed to take a day or two in the audiobook. Marches that took weeks in the book seemed to take a week in the abridged version. The people in the book, however, glowed, and the action scenes were rousing. Great!Heretic (The Grail Quest #3).
