REVIEW OF ELEMENTARY AND INTERMEDIATE ALGEBRA 5TH EDITION

- "Waiting for the World to End" is a book everyone can relate to in one way or another. The characters are well-thoughtout and very likable. This book has just about everything you would like to read about: love, denial, loneliness, sadness, joy, sports, religion, etc. It's a very fun and exciting novel to read. It'll have you never wanting to put it down.
- After reading this book I have a very strong desire to travel to Ladakh. Unfortunately due to political reasons and the animosity between India and Pakistan I will never be able to do so. Ladakh lies the the Indian Kashmir and I will never be granted a visa to visit it. Harvey has done a beautiful job in bringing to me what I will never be able to witness in person. An excellent description of the Ladakh and its people. This book brought me peace and made me calm for many weeks after having read it.
