REVIEW OF THE DEATH OF DISTANCE

- I should have read the book first. I never listen to critics or book reviewers, and I should have. The book was O.K.

That is a very mild term for a book that, having taken 12 years to write, should have been a WOW. I have been a faithful reader of the Series, and I honestly expected The Shelters of Stone to have just as much "punch" as the prior books...it looks like Jean Auel got bored with this series and, realizing she has one more to do, repeated herself ad nauseum. I will read her final book in the series, but I won't buy it unless it is at least fifty times better than Shelters of Stone.

- A lot of information about the tribes is repeated over and over. Not necessary for the reader to understand story.
