REVIEW OF LOGITECH DINOVO USER GUIDE

- Chicken Soup for the Preteen Soul is written by kids all around the world. This is a great book about kid's experiences from around the world on a lot of things like losing people close to them and about family relationships. I learned that all people aren't as lucky as I and that I shouldn't look at people who are different. Sometimes it's good to be different. I would recommend this book to everyone!

- I just finished the book, and I think I'm suffering withdrawal from my Bachelder fix. Some have said his book is flawed, pointing at the book's ending, the fact that the theme is really not new, even the book's cover design... The comments are perhaps founded, but the writer's dark humor, eloquence, perspectives and innovative approach to novel writing make this book one of my favorite reads of 2001. Bachelder is certainly a promising author with an impressive mastery of our language and an intriguing vision of our society. I posted a review of this earlier, but for some funky reason, it didn't come up. So here's the ol' college try for a repeat...
